

COCONINO COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COURSE OUTLINE

Prepared by: Maxie Inigo
Status: Permanent

Date: February 8, 2000

A. Identification:

1. Subject Area: Military Science
2. Course Number: MSC 101
3. Course Title: Basic Military Science I
4. Credit hrs: 1
5. Catalog Description:

Studies the defense establishment and organization of the U.S. Army. Introduces military discipline, traditions, and historical perspectives. Studies the roles of the different branches of the U.S. Army in our nation's defense. Includes training in marksmanship, field craft, rappelling, and first aid. One lecture.

B. Course Goals:

To provide students knowledge of the structure and mission of the Army including concepts of professionalism, officership, communication, and leadership in a dynamic, student-centered environment.

C. Course Outcomes:

Students will:

1. Describe the roles of the President and Congress with regard to the US Army.
2. List the roles of the Army Components (Active, Reserve & National Guard).
3. Identify the Rank, Pay & Benefits available to Army Officers.
4. Describe the role of the Officer and NCO.
5. Describe the organization of the Army.
6. Describe the customs, courtesies, traditions, drill & ceremony of the Army.
7. List and describe the methods of military writing & briefings.
8. List the Army installations and major activities of each.
9. Describe the components of basic soldier skills.
10. List the basic entry level branches of the Army.

D. Course Content:

Will Include:

1. Roles of the President and Congress
2. Role of the Army Components (Active, Reserve & National Guard)
3. Rank, Pay & Benefits
4. Role of the Officer and NCO
5. Organization of the Army
6. Customs, Courtesies, Traditions, Drill & Ceremony
7. Military Writing & Briefings
8. Army Installations & Activities
9. Basic Soldier Skills
10. Basic Entry Level Branches