CCC understands that due to the COVID-19 pandemic it can be challenging for individuals to obtain certain types of documentation to verify FAFSA information. When individuals make a good faith effort to obtain a Verification of Non-Filing (VNF) from the IRS or to obtain a W-2 from their employer, but receive nothing back in a reasonable timeframe, CCC may accept this document instead. Further guidance is available at <https://ifap.ed.gov/electronic-announcements/070920AltAcceptDocCompleteIRSVNFW2ProfJudgmentCOVID>.

Verification of Good Faith attempt to receive Verification of Non-Filing (VNF) letter from the IRS

- I submitted a 2019 4506-T form to the CCC Financial Aid Office on: _____.
I waited at least 10 days after the request and certify that I have not received a response in the mail from the IRS.
- I personally faxed a completed 2019 4506-T form to the IRS on: _____.
I waited at least 10 days after the request and certify that I have not received any response in the mail from the IRS.

Verification of Good Faith attempt to receive W-2

- I requested a 2019 W-2 from my employer or a 2019 wage statement from the IRS on: _____.
I waited at least 10 days after the request and certify that I have not received any response from either my employer or the IRS.
 - o Name of employer(s) who I contacted: _____
 - o Amount of income I earned from my employer(s) in 2019: _____
 - o The reason why the W-2 can't be sent to me _____

I certify that information provided on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. Purposely giving false or misleading information may result in a delay or denial of my federal financial aid and I may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison or both. I hereby provide consent for the use of electronic records and signatures on all financial aid documents. I understand that if I choose to sign electronically, my electronic signature constitutes a binding contract and may not be denied legal effect, validity, or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form or because an electronic signature or electronic record was used in its formation.
