

20-00 LEGAL STRUCTURE—POLICY

The Coconino Community College District is organized under Chapter 12 of Title 15 of the Arizona Revised Statutes to provide educational services to the residents of Coconino County, Arizona. The College is governed by a five-member District Board whose members are elected from voting precincts within the District. By statute, the District Governing Board is responsible for adopting policies to govern the College and for offering programs that meet the educational needs of the County's residents. The President, vice presidents, and other officers and employees of the College are responsible for implementing and administering the College's programs consistent with the Policies adopted by the Board.
