

Policy 444-00 Classification and Compensation

Sponsor: Human Resources

Policy

Coconino Community College will maintain a classification and compensation system which will consist of classification specifications with designated pay ranges and pay rates. The College President or designee is responsible for establishing procedures to ensure positions are systematically classified and compensation is internally equitable and externally competitive within the financial capability of the College.

Policy History

08/29/1996 Adopted by the District Governing Board
09/2010 Reformatted

Legal Review

None