

Coconino Hispanic Advisory Council

- Social Media Internship Opportunity •

Job Description

The Coconino Hispanic Advisory Council is responsible for creating awareness and affinity on behalf of the Hispanic and Latinx community in Coconino County using storytelling on the web and in social media. The social media intern plays an important role in bringing an authentic voice while sharing in-time information to CHAC's social media. If you have an eye for the camera, can write concise and creative copy, know what gets shared, double-tapped and retweeted, apply for our social media intern position today!

This is an unpaid internship open to all NAU, CCC, and local high school students with a September 1, 2022, start date. Application reviews begin August 3, 2022.

If interested, apply online at: <https://forms.gle/9fL2qdV4ci4p22AB7>