

Black History Month

Wednesday, February 16, 2022
10am to 4pm
Lone Tree Campus – Commons

James Gallardo is a 6th generation Flagstaff community member who has 45 years of artwork experience. James is known for contributing to the famous Murdoch Center mural. James will be having a live air brush painting demonstration focus on Black history and highlighting the Flagstaff “Southside Community.”

“It all starts with love. We express ourselves in different ways through writing, music, art, dance, and poetry. We dealt with all types of issues in our communities; we can come together, because love is the answer.”

– James Gallardo.
